THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD THY GOD

WITH ALL THY HEART

During the course of a year we learn many things about ourselves through people. Our interactions with others teach us, help us, shape us and even break us. There is no doubt that we are left profoundly affected by these contacts. Acquaintances broaden our perspective, true friends touch our hearts and even life-time mates may be met who help to fulfill God's plan for our lives. But hopefully, above all, we become intimate with the only true and complete fulfiller of our needs, the Lord Jesus.

*THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD
THY GOD
WITH ALL THY HEART ...*

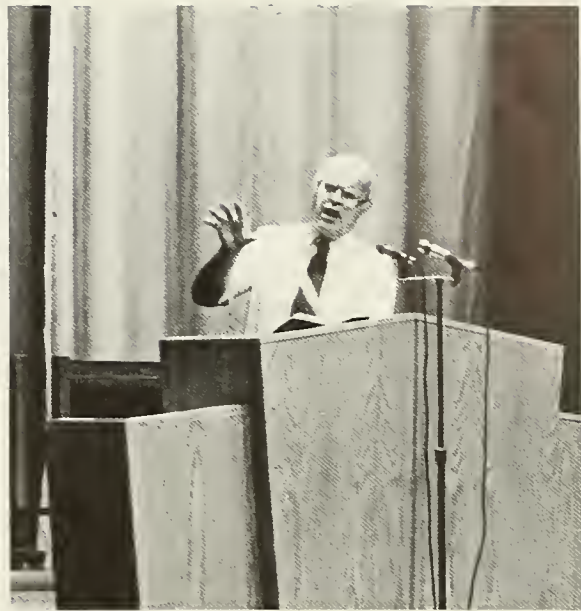

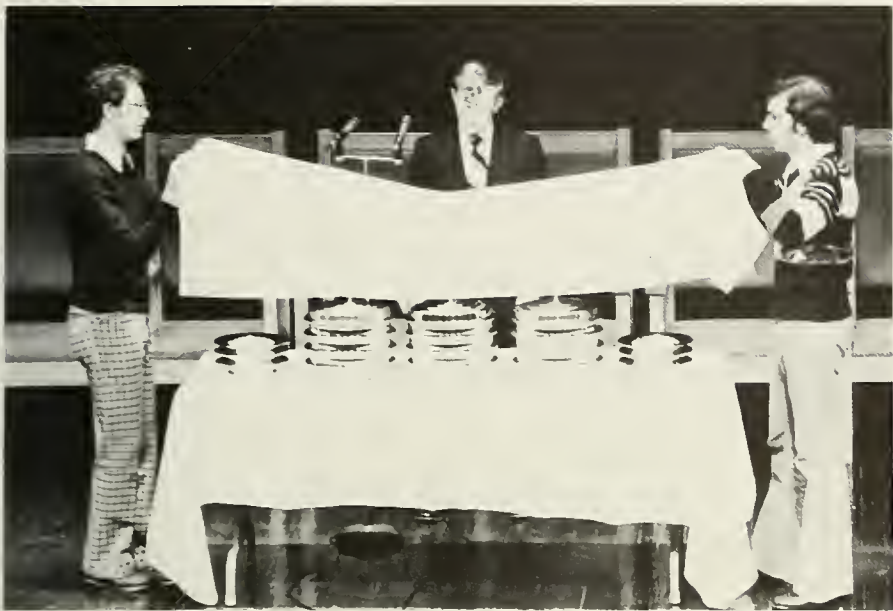

AND WITH ALL THY SOUL

If the soul is, indeed, the essence of our being, then the command to love the Lord with all your soul is an all-encompassing action. As we seek at Bryan to build well-rounded Christian people we must not rely entirely upon the Christian curriculum, chapel speakers, Day of Prayer, cell groups or even Christian friends. With our basis for life being sound and with love in our soul for Him who created every good thing, we find new meaning in these often otherwise meaningless activities. There is new meaning to life as we fall more in love with Him.

*THOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD
THY GOD
WITH ALL THY HEART,
AND WITH ALL THY SOUL ...*

AND WITH ALL THY STRENGTH

A life honoring to God involves dedication in every area. Sports are a big part of many lives here at Bryan. Strength that honors the Lord involves gentleness. True strength is not threatened and can act kindly. Using strength in a way that shows the love of Jesus can often be a difficult task, especially in the midst of an emotion-packed game. Striving, however, to fulfill every area of this command of love can make a contest of strength an event of honor to our Lord.

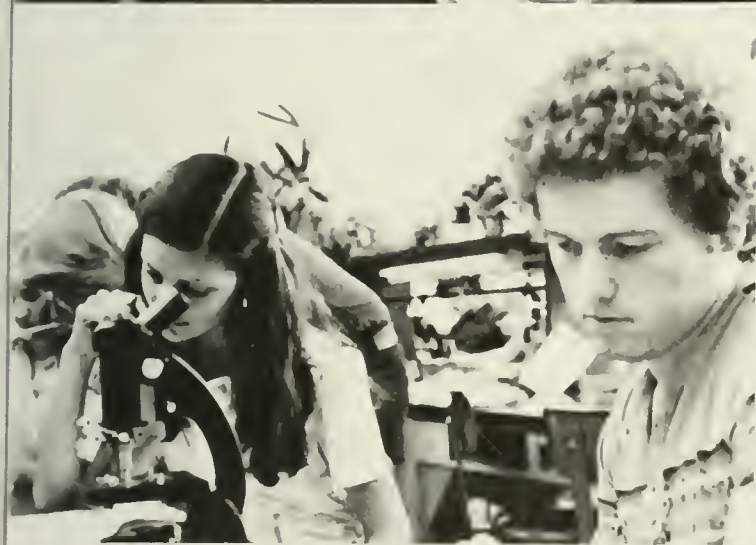

*THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD
THY GOD
WITH ALL THY HEART,
AND WITH ALL THY SOUL,
AND WITH ALL THY STRENGTH ...*

AND WITH ALL THY MIND

A Christian liberal arts education is intended to develop people in all areas, preparing them for the world that awaits. This concept of a well rounded person did not begin at Bryan or even with the very first Christian liberal arts college. Jesus commanded us to develop our heart, soul, strength and mind through love for Him. Academics is obviously an important area for those of us attending this institution. Our devotion and dedication to the acquiring of knowledge should be channeled through the Source of supreme knowledge. After all, the "fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge." Proverbs 1:7

*THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD
THY GOD
WITH ALL THY HEART,
AND WITH ALL THY SOUL,
AND WITH ALL THY STRENGTH,
AND WITH ALL THY MIND ...*

*AND THY NEIGHBOR AS

HEART

ARRIVAL

We are people who yearn for development. To be true to ourselves and our God requires constant growth, learning and changing. College can be a means through which these processes become reality. Arrival at school marks a new era of one's life. Without a doubt—college is a challenge.

ALL COLLEGE PICNIC

A day of fun for the entire college family

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION

"Through the Golden Doors of Opportunity" walked the freshmen and transfers as this year's President's Reception took place. What is intended to be a serious and formal evening turns up some of the best and longest remembered humor of the year.

INITIATION

Welcoming the freshmen to Bryan College through the most mature methods imaginable has become tradition. Initiation is truly a night to be remembered by both the participants and the observers.

BWA

Behind the scenes the Bryan Women's Auxiliary performs many important functions that are known to few of us. The showing of the film series "How Should We Then Live" was a project of the BWA, along with curtains for the dining hall and helping with the engaged couples' retreat. Most appreciated, however, is their never-ending task of making our birthdays away from home more special. Thanks for the cakes, ladies.

JUNIOR - SENIOR BANQUET

The junior class outdid themselves this year as they presented "Horizons" to the graduating class of 1979. Horizons appear before us exposing glimpses of splendor and hurt, but with Jesus our horizons hold the assurance of joy unacclaimed.

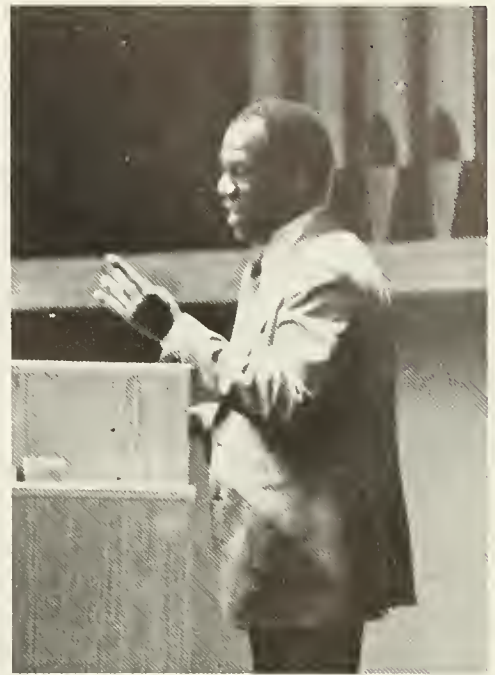

SOUL

CONFERENCES

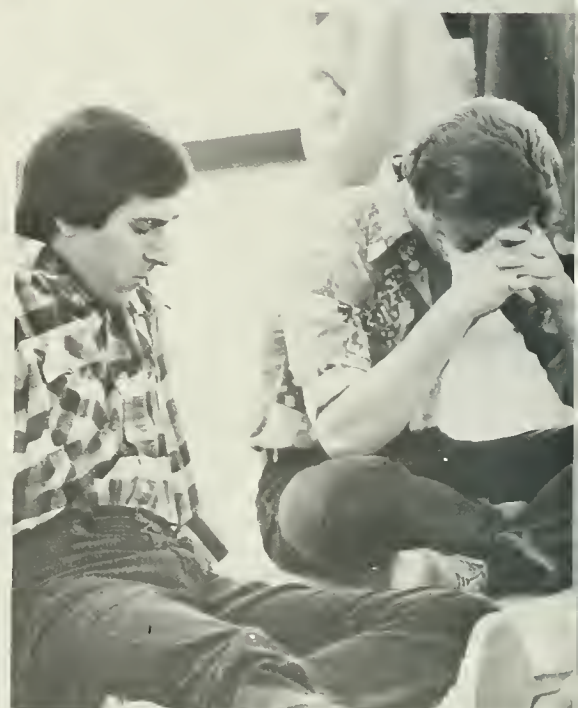

At the start of each semester students attend a number of meetings that, applied to each aspect of life, will help them grow as people, better equipping them for college life and life beyond. Arnold Olsen spoke at the Spiritual Life Conference this fall. The speakers for the Christian Life Conference in the spring were Sam Dalton and Mark Corts. Highlighting the spring conference was the special music by Kim Wickes.

Once every semester a day is set aside for prayer. God reveals Himself through our prayers as we experience this intimate communion with Him.

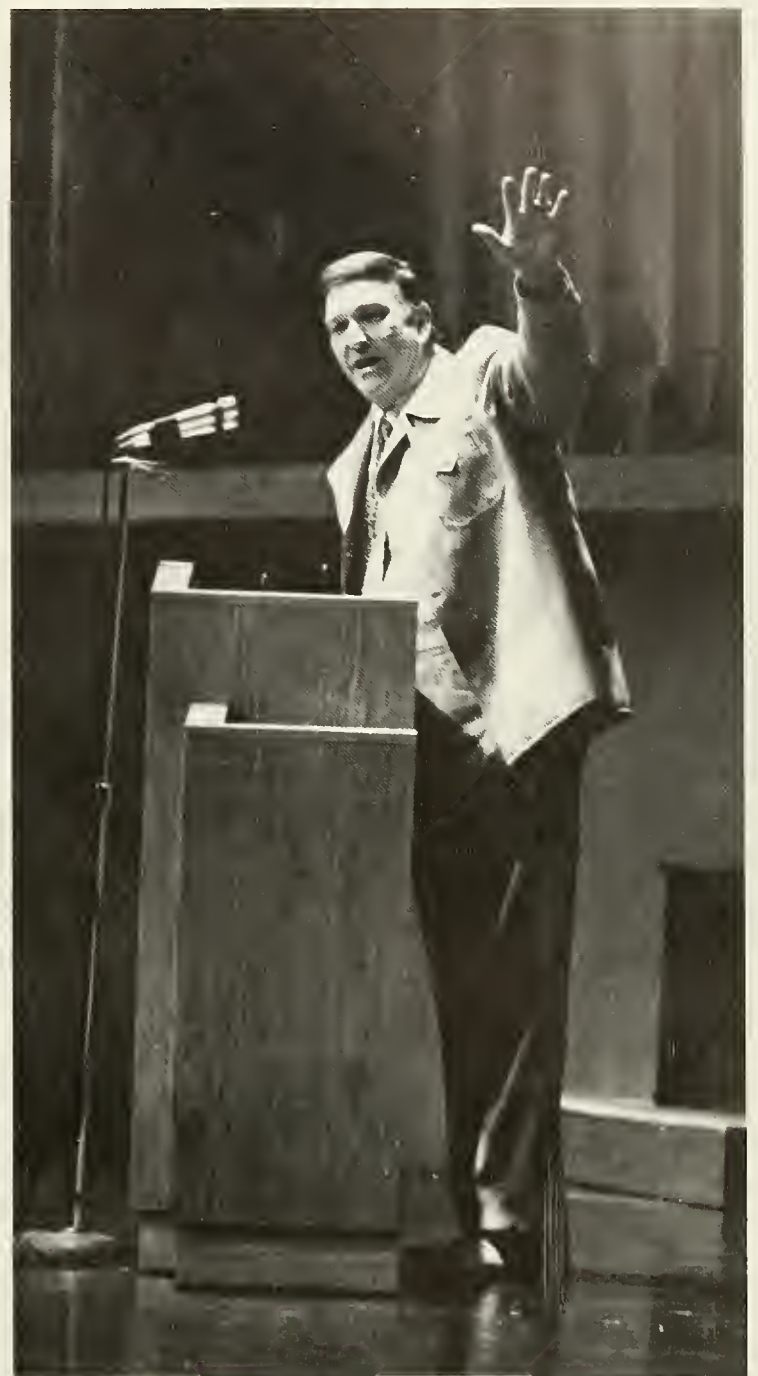

DAY OF PRAYER

CHAPELS

*To know God is the eternal quest.
Chapel services provide a time to learn from the words of others and then, hopefully, to go beyond the words of men to find the Truth of God.*

CELL GROUPS

Cell groups provide an opportunity to grow in the knowledge of each other and of God. There are many cells which contain a nucleus of people within the Bryan body. So it is with the body of Christ.

Wycliffe serves alphabet soup?

How would you like yours - seasoned with a dash of Africa, Latin America, South Seas, or as they make it on a mountaintop in Central Asia? There are many varieties. Some 3000 small tribal nations need to feast on the Word of God. Learn how you can help "cook up" a Bible translation for one of these.

EDITOR'S NOTE

I would like to take this little space to quietly thank all those who allowed themselves to be used by the Lord in order to help put this book together. First I want to especially thank my wonderful staff for the enormous amount of help they so willingly offered. I could hardly have asked the Lord for a better staff. Along with the staff I would also like to thank J.T., Chris, Priscilla, Kathy, Billy and all those others who lent a helping hand in the photography department when things got tight. Thank you, Mr. Robinson, for your constant guidance along the way and Bruce, for being the most helpful and caring yearbook representative we've ever had. Thank you, Chris, for the long hours you put into the printing for our theme. Thank you to those many others of you who helped in many different ways throughout the year.

Above all I thank God for coming through (as always) on His Word which we claimed in Psalms 138:8, "The Lord will accomplish what concerns me."

Our primary goal was that this book glorify our Lord Jesus Christ. He is our Inspiration.

Keith M. McVall
